

MIXTAPE

A Woman's

Soundtrack to Life:

A monologue, movement, and musical event that celebrates fierce womanhood in all its complexities. This multidisciplinary theatrical production is an exploration and celebration of womanhood in all its glory.

Andrea Sanderson (poet, singer, hip hop artist) known on stage as 'Vocab' has been a spoken word artist since 2001. She serves as a creative Writer In the Community for Gemini Ink, co-hosts: 2nd Verse, Jazz & Poetry with a Purpose, and various events around the state of Texas. Her poetry is published in The Texas Observer, January 2016 Issue, Pariah Anthology SFA Press, March 2016, and Sycorax's Daughters, Cedar Groove Publishing, January 2017, which is nominated for a Bram Stoker's Award for Superior Achievement in an Anthology. She released a long anticipated single, "Waiting For Me," in December of 2017. In January of 2018, she received two awards, Influencer of the Year 2017, and Dream Voice, and appeared on the cover of The San Antonio Current.

DJ Ms Eclectic, is a graduate of Prairie View A&M University, recording artist and DJ/Radio personality. The “Eclectic Mixtape Radio show” currently airs on 3 national critically acclaimed Inspirational radio stations. Eclectic is also ½ of the Urban Gospel Duo F.R.E.E. (The only Hip Hop Female Duo with a Christian platform). She has been blessed to share the stage with greats such as Isaac Carree, Kierra Sheard, Mali Music and more. Whether DJing or MCing, Eclectic loves infusing old and new school music to create an exhilarating experience. Eclectic is looking forward to releasing her debut solo EP this Summer. With Jesus in the forefront, she lives for music and knows no limits.

Glo Armmer

hails from San Antonio, TX. A corporate career woman and model, she has been performing spoken word poetry for over two decades. Glo's featured for HBO's Russell Simmons' Def Poetry in 2003 and has opened for special talents like Mike Epps, Mo'Nique, The Isley Brothers, and Mary J. Blige.

Glo's latest success, Armmer Entertainment, provides hosting, promotions and event services. Its first major endeavor, Reunion Tour, brought the neo-soul sensation "Floetry" to the Alamo City. Armmer Entertainment also leads the nation's premiere open mic and poetry event, 2nd Verse, which has toured The Tobin Center for Performance Art and will feature at The McNay Art Museum.

Naomi Sumthin2Say

is native to the Northside of Milwaukee, WI. This "Soulful 'Round the Way Queen," is a singer and poet, making her mark by featuring at The University of Texas at San Antonio & Texas A&M. Recently, she's performed her sultry tones for "The Will to Adorn" a Smithsonian exhibit at The Institute for Texan Cultures. She's still adjusting to her crown and all that it encompasses.

Tamara Adira is a dancer, choreographer, and producer. She is the founder and Artistic Director of Tamara Adira Arte y Pasión, a company known for pushing the boundaries of flamenco and Spanish dance and one of the most contemporary Spanish dance companies in the country. She has studied and shared the stage with the late great maestro Teo Morca. Counterbalancing her studies in traditional flamenco, Adira leverages her experience in experimental and contemporary performance, demonstrated by her Harvard University residency under John Cage. “Always remembering the masters of flamenco, Adira keeps a keen eye to the future. Bridging both the traditional and the new school, Adira proves to be one of the most creative visions in the South Texas flamenco scene.” – The Rivard Report

Tausha Jackson was born and raised in the small town of Longview, TX. Even as a small girl she had big dreams, a bigger voice, and music in her veins. Tausha’s passionate delivery and soulful sound has allowed her to perform on stages across America with and for many gospel greats. She has worked with world renowned producers like Marcus Dawson and Myron Butler, and appeared (with The Messengers) on Tamela Mann’s CD, Master Plan, as a background vocalist. After stepping off the music scene for a while, Tausha is back with a vengeance, singing from her soul and transforming one heart at a time through the power of music.

is a nationally renowned professional dancer.

Her mission is to positively impact lives through faith & Hip-Hop. Secret is a founding member of Unifyd Soul Entertainment. Martinez is currently working with Artist Highstrung to spread her message.

Yvette "Vet" Hardin is a native of San Antonio, TX, and has been singing since the tender age of three. Yvette matriculated at Prairie View A&M University where she chartered the Lambda Zeta chapter of Sigma Alpha Lota. She has participated and served in multiple community choirs and is currently the choir director of the New Psalm Young Adult Choir at Antioch Missionary Baptist Church.

As F. R.E.E.(Forever Radical Edifying & Exalting) with DJ Ms. Eclectic, Yvette writes music and opens for artists like Kierra Sheard, Bizzele, Da T.R.U.T.H., and Mali Music. Vet truly believes that Christ + music = her divine purpose.
