

Coffeehouse Heroes is a San Antonio based music group that performs original songs and well selected covers. A typical show includes acoustic versions of a variety of songs featuring newer hits, classic rock and folk, indie, alternative and original music. Coffeehouse Heroes is full of wonderful harmonies from the bands two vocalists, as well as excellent guitar work and additional instruments to round out the sound. Coffeehouse Heroes will make any event special.

Coffeehouse Heroes

Coffeehouse Heroes is comprised of three experienced musicians that bring a wide variety of acoustic, classic rock, jazz, folk, indie, alternative and original music together to create a great listening experience. Lead guitarist Dave Sandridge has been playing guitar for over 20 years and brings a classic rock, blues and jazz sound to the group. Singer Songstress Meghan Oberle brings her creative energy, dynamic vocal abilities and live performance experience to the team. Lastly, singer-songwriter Vincent Mark brings his background in classical guitar, Folk, Indie and Alternative music. Together they create a perfect sound for everything from a relaxing Coffeehouse performance or corporate event to a lively private party or bar room sing-along type show.

Meet the Band

Meghan Oberle

Meghan is a San Antonio based singer songwriter who hails from Ohio. She began writing her original music in 2009; inspired by Indie, Pop, Blues and Jazz. Meghan began performing live as a lead singer in 2013 and has a wide range of experience covering a variety of vocal styles, from Rock and Indie to Jazz and Big Band groups.

Dave Sandridge

Like a lot of guitar players, Dave started out on classical guitar at age 9, but he quickly transitioned to rock. Although most of his playing has centered on rock, he also incorporates blues and jazz into his playing style. He has been performing with a variety of musical groups over the past 15 years.

Musical Influences in his own words "are too many to mention".

Vincent Mark

"Old Soldiers never die, they just keep making great music"... A Soldier for most of his life & current Acoustic Artist, Vincent Mark is an independent Singer/Songwriter and Guitarist.

From hotels in Paris, to pubs in the English Midlands to Liberia, West Africa, South Texas and even Afghanistan, Singer-Songwriter Vincent Mark has played in some amazing places. From 2011 till 2015 Vincent was a regular in the weekend acoustic, alternative and folk music scene in the San Antonio area and was the monthly host for Open Mic night in the Café at HEB's Central Market. Over the last 10 years, he has lived in Italy, Afghanistan, San Antonio, Liberia (West Africa), Washington, D.C. and is now back in San Antonio. He currently has two CD's (Wine by the Fire & Busting Bubbles) available for purchase on all major music platforms.

As a member of Coffeehouse Heroes, Vincent is focusing on live performance and writing and recording new music with his fellow bandmates.

Arts & Culture, City of San Antonio is with Los Nahuatlantos and 2 others.

Apr 23, 2021 · 🌐

Congrats to the latest round of musicians and songwriters selected for our City Council Local Music Spotlight! Their songs started playing this week during City Council meetings. We're excited for them to be in the rotation of nearly 70 songs by San Antonio artists who are a part of this program. Learn more and apply to be featured at

www.SanAntonio.gov/Music 🎵

“Vincent Mark” Cover and Featured Artist for San Antonio, Scene Magazine Feb 2012