

JOE WALMSLEY RESUME 2006-2022

Joe Walmsley arrived in San Antonio Texas USA in 2006 from his native Liverpool England sponsored by Waxy O Connors Irish Pub 234 Riverwalk San Antonio 78205.

The owners discovered Joe when he was working as Production Show vocalist before being promoted to Entertainment Director for Imperial Majesty Cruise Line in Fort Lauderdale back in 2002 where their first location is based.

Joe became an instant hit on the San Antonio Riverwalk building up a huge following from not only local people but Business People from all over the USA and various other parts of the world who come to San Antonio for a variety of different Business conventions, a huge amount of these people have made Waxy O Connors their regular place to eat, drink and be entertained by Joe Walmsley when they return to San Antonio on Business.

In 2007 he released his first album titled 'BELIEVE' recording with various Texas Musicians. All songs on the album written and composed by Joe.

In 2013 he recorded a Live Irish album of Standards on Saint Patrick's Day titled LIVE AT WAXY O CONNORS which has become a major part of Waxy O Connors souvenir merchandise.

After the release of this album he was approached by The Irish Harp and Shamrock Society of Texas to perform at The University of Incarnate Word at their regular yearly Irish Music Festival.

Later in 2013 he performed a number of times at the San Antonio Arnesan River Theater at a musical event sponsored by the City of San Antonio.

One of these performances became his next album 'LIVE AT LA VILLITA' where he performed 12 original songs acoustically.

Joe went on to promote this album on Fox TV morning show, Great Day San Antonio morning TV show as well as appearing in New York City on a variety music TV Show called New York Rocks. He has since been back to appear on that show three more times the last occasion performing at The World famous BITTER END in Greenwich Village where his performance was filmed live.

In 2014 he was accepted as a member into The National Grammy Recording Academy as a songwriter. That same year his song 'LITTLE DIAMOND' was accepted as an entry for the 2015 Grammys, a second song 'SCOUSER IN THE ROOM' was also submitted and entered for 2017.

This song received two separate reviews from two former Grammy Winners Ricky Kej and Wouter Kellerman who both sang Joe's praises not only as a songwriter and vocalist but on an extremely produced original song.

Joe is still based at Waxy O Connors and has been The house Musician/Entertainer for the last eleven years. Joe continues to promote his original work at Waxy O Connors as well as outside projects. Towards the end of 2017 he released his fourth album SCouser IN THE ROOM a brand new studio album with a full band he put together for this project.

Joe released a new three track Ep in December 2021 called TOO DRUNK TO UBER. He continues to draw a loyal following performing five nights a week on the San Antonio Riverwalk at Waxy O Connors.
