STAGE VIOLINIST

Hailing from San Antonio, Texas, Ernest Saucedo is an established violinist, singer, and dancer with a penchant for delivering stand-out performances. Inspired greatly by his mother who was a strong supporter of music and the arts, Ernest began his music journey at the tender age of 9. Diving head first into music, the musician started learning guitar to complement his vocal study. He then discovered the magic of the violin and everything changed as it sparked a burning passion for him to pursue a career as an onstage performing violinist.

Being an avid storyteller, Ernest draws inspiration for his performances from personal experience, allowing him to evoke strong emotions in people when he plays. Perhaps what sets this singing and dancing violinist apart is his extensive track record of performances at some of the nation's top venues like The Hollywood Bowl, The Kennedy Center, and The White House.

Ernest Saucedo has performed in a multitude of stage productions including Fiddler on the Roof, Evita, West Side Story, Matilda, and many others. The violinist has also debuted shows with Universal Studios Japan and Disney Cruise Line. His most recent classical violin concert, MAESTOSO, is currently being broadcast on Texas Public Radio.

Apart from being the experienced performer he is, Ernest has since ventured into theatre and show production, starting his very own company, Danrie. Having produced and choreographed a myriad of unique shows with Danrie, Ernest hopes to engage audiences with his exciting yet profound productions.

Ernest seeks to positively reinvent the image of a violinist and producer with his unique skill set and through his unstoppable creativity.
