The Jake Castillo Trio is an original band blending progressive blues, jazz and good old fashioned rock and roll into heartfelt original songs that are personally revealing and often tell stories of true life experiences from the cruelty of the unforgiving streets to the joys of family and fatherhood. It is our hope and desire that listeners of all ages and backgrounds will find something that they relate to in the music and lyrics, all of which were written from the perspective of Jake's own personal journey. The Jake Castillo Trio has played showcases by invitation at SXSW in Austin, TX on two separate occasions, and we also perform for San Antonio's Fiesta Arts & Music Festival every year. On March 12, 2018 we were invited to perform at the Tobin Center in San Antonio, TX in front of a crowd of over 2400 people with the entire 67-piece Youth Orchestra of San Antonio, and on March 16, 2018 we performed a special acoustic set on Texas Public Radio that was broadcast all over the world in video and audio on their website and radio station. Although the band is called Jake Castillo "Trio", we are sometimes a 6 piece with the addition of piano, saxophone and trombone. We have been featured on Sinclair Broadcasting's WOAI SA Living Morning Show and the Fox Networks' Daytime at 9.

We perform over 125 shows every year.

"There are groups and bands that you hear and will leave you with a great memory! Then there is The Jake Castillo Trio that leaves you wanting more!!"

- Cleto Rodriguez, News 4 San Antonio

"With their highly progressive jazz fusion sound, Jake Castillo and his merry melody makers are creating something a little different. You will begin traveling on another plane of existence after listening to their vibe. Really."

- Barbara Johnson, Where To Go 210
