PROFILE

Joshua Ray Summey is a songwriter and multi-instrumentalist originally from Columbia, SC, and Houston, TX, and currently residing in San Antonio. As a singer, songwriter, and guitarist, he has performed solo, in bands, and on recordings since the age of twelve. Sometimes, he's getting to know San Antonio one restaurant performance at a time. Others, he's scrunched up in a van with far too many people whilst rolling around the country. At times, he's enjoying alone time on an acoustic tour up to Nashville. The best times are spent sharing his love for life and music with his wife, his daughter, and their beagle.

At all times, he is just another artist honing his craft.
