NOT YOUR DREAM GIRL (NYDG:)

THE STORY

NØt YØur Dr3am Girl (NYDG) is inspired by Audrey Wollen's "sad girl theory". It challenges the trivialization of young girls' trepidations in society today by not only welcoming young women to embrace their emotions but by providing comfort to their feelings. Work wear is mixed with feminine silhouettes and bold colorful prints to appeal to fellow "antisocialite" girls and to inspire them to leave their rooms and re-discover the world around them. With the philosophy "I am NØt YØur Dream Girl but only my own " this collection hopes to push the idea of self acceptance and provide solutions to any girl that may feel hindered by society they feel cannot accept them.
