

Spill (please see video) was a collaboration between Jayne King,-Dancer, Diane Mazur-Painter, Michael Bower-Videographer and Tianji Xie-Musician & Composer. It was done through the Fine Arts Music, Dance and Painting Program at Northwest Vista College with the Cooperation of Palo Alto College who made their Black Box Studio available for the production. The Dance piece was choreographed by Jayne King and referred to the Process of Painting by Diane Mazur. Jayne first mimics Diane's process and then becomes the paint herself. It was shown at "Merging Modes" at the Radius Theatre in 2004. Tianji Xie was a visiting artist in the Music Department at Northwest Vista and allowed us to use his music.
