

These are a few examples of the Whole Body Tape Project I taught to Game Students in Sculpture at Northwest Vista College. One year we also collaborated with Jayne King's Dance Classes to design the set designs with the figures for their performances.

