

Contact

pwehrlich@sbcglobal.net

www.linkedin.com/in/paul-ehrllich-10b16323 (LinkedIn)

Top Skills

Affinity Publisher

Writing

Adobe Photoshop

Paul Ehrlich

Writer | Fledgling Game Designer | Former Filmmaker
San Antonio, Texas, United States

Summary

Over 19 years of professional experience writing about diverse subjects, including the entertainment and medical industries. Wrote for a variety of companies, all with differing workflows and perspectives.

Specialties include explaining complex topics to laypeople and writing informative, fun scripts. Extremely self-motivated and enjoy working on my own.

Experience

Self-employed

Writer

2004 - Present (19 years)

San Antonio, Texas Area

Writing monthly articles for Neighborhood News, a local newsletter.

Secured photo permission for one article and shot accompanying pictures.

Wrote one article for Tabletops and Tentacles, an online gaming publication about Mokele-Mbembe, a dinosaur rumored to be living in Africa. Researched Mokele-Mbembe along with other animals possibly mistaken for dinosaurs.

Wrote approximately thirteen 1500 word articles for texashillcountry.com and authentictexan.com, two websites covering Texas life. Pitched articles and received assignments. Conducted interviews with local business owners during the pandemic, which was a challenge. Samples available.

Wrote approximately four 2500+ word articles for Working Nurse Magazine, a monthly print publication based in the Los Angeles area. Conducted interviews with medical staff about personnel challenges, along with interviews regarding clinic administration, and controversial topics.

Writing a 50000-word role playing game to be self-published at a later date. Created a family card game that's currently being shopped to various publishers.

Wrote approximately fifty 150-word advertisements over a month for a national tutoring organization. Content was specifically tailored for individual cities.

Wrote 25+ articles for industry leading websites on diverse topics, such as liposuction and computer programming languages.

Ehrlich Images

Photographer/Filmmaker

2010 - 2015 (5 years)

Greater Los Angeles Area

Shot multiple images with SLR cameras to accompany articles.

Featured artist in shows throughout the Los Angeles area, including the Pomona Arts Walk and Gallery 1650. Selected in juried exhibitions. Photo work to accompany articles will be strong.

Edited challenging VHS/Super 8/Mini DV videos. Much of the footage has minor to moderate tape damage and was taped by amateurs. My services included tape clean-up as well as DVD conversion and/or editing.

Edited documentary/industrial films for corporate and government clients. Specialized in working with non-profits.

Edited and color-corrected challenging independent films for individual clients.

Education

George Mason University

Bachelor of Arts - BA, English Writing