EXPERIENCE

2015

Illustrator, Margin Magazine

- From summer to late fall of 2015 I volunteered as an illustrator for Margin Magazine (an online magazine created by two college students), monthly I would have to collaborate with an author and create a piece of artwork that encompassed my style as well as showcase the subject of the author's work.

2015-
2018

VASE

- Every year since 2015 I've participated in a district wide art competition, that not only tested my artistic but my improvisation and adagial thinking skills. From that competition, I have won three medals, and volunteered in 2015 to 2016 sorting and organizing artwork displays.

2018

Fort Bend Education Foundation

- In 2018 I participated in the Fort Bend Education Foundation 25th anniversary Sliver Jubilee art competition and was one of the five people who won. At this competition I showed off my artistic and graphic design skills.

2018-
2022

Bon a Tirer Print Making Club

I am an avid member of the BAT club, since the fall semester of 2018 I have attended majority of the meetings and constantly volunteer at events. From fall 2020 to spring 2022 I was the president of the club. Before then I was Vice President and now President I attend every meeting and take notes on what is discusses and even conduct meetings with our Staff advisor or other clubs when needed. I also help organize inventory, create volunteer schedules for events, organize artist talks and events within the group, handle the club's funds, volunteer with our community via the San Antonio Museum of Art as an art instructor volunteer.

Abercrombie & Fitch/Hollister

2019

- From June to August I worked at Abercrombie & Fitch/Hollister as a brand representative and sales associate. As a brand rep. my job was to ensure every customer had a great experience with us, the displays were well organized, the store was kept tidy, every customer was informed about our deals and sales, make sure we were able to reach our customer conversion quota, and at times I would also have to up-sale products and handle the cash register. From this job I learned a lot about handling products, on hand customer service, and how to use retail-based technology.

2020-

University of Texas at San Antonio Library

- From January of 2020 until May of 2022 I worked for the UTSA Library as a student clerk and digital archivist assistant. My jobs varied from video to book transcribing, archiving print media, digital archiving, creating website metadata and editing audio and video files. I used applications such as adobe audition, premier pro, and photoshop and excel daily. I learned how to organize mass files, keep track of sensitive materials, research historical files, use industrial grade scanners, transcribe and caption videos, as well as work with other academic departments to insure they got the information and data they needed.

present

Nature of Art Camp Counselor (Southwest School of Art)

- From July to August of 2022 I worked with the Southwest School of Art as a part time camp counselor and art instructor. As a counselor I taught children from the ages of 6 years old to 13 years old arts and crafts projects, how to problem solve, observe nature, and how to express themselves creatively. I became familiar with how to productively communicate with children, engage them in activities, inform them and their parents on different art practices and work with a small team of coworkers to ensure that our scheduled activities always went smoothly.

San Antonio African American Archive and Community Museum

- From September 2022 to present I have worked for SAAACAM as a gallery attendant. My job as a gallery attendant entail giving tours, introducing patrons to our exhibits, being well informed on this history of San Antonio, standing in for community events, and selling merchandise. Since working in this environment I have learned a lot about how to upkeep a gallery space, how to interact with the public in an engaging way as well as the inner workings of an up and coming institution. I am also the curator of SAAACAM's gift shop. As curator I met with local black artist and artisans to discuss their work, sales, as well be a point of contact when we have art markets and events pertaining the creative scene in San Antonio.
