

Sabrina San Miguel

sabrinasamonesanmiguel@gmail.com | San Antonio, TX | 210-414-5037

Curriculum Vitae

Education

Texas A&M University-San Antonio

May 2019

Master of Arts in English

Graduate Research Project: Completion of first poetry manuscript titled "When My Mother Was a Woodworker". Poetry focused on the mother wound with an emphasis on research regarding writing as a tool for survival.

Texas A&M University-San Antonio

December 2016

Bachelor of Arts in English & Gender Studies

Publications

LA Times (De Los)

November 2023

To the Person Who Keeps Planting Flamingos in the Underpass That's Flooding

Poem, alongside poet Jose Olivarez

Brooklyn Poetry

March 2022

Recollection of Drowning

Poem

Frontier Poetry

March 2021

Teaching your Homegirl about the Root Chakra

Poem

Latinx Writing and Rhetoric Studies Vol.1., No. 1 June 2020

Driving my Children to School the Morning After Another Mass Shooting

Poem, in conversation with Laurie Ann Guerrero

The Rumpus

March 2020

When the Basilica Roof Brooded

Poem, ENOUGH Series

Texas A&M University-San Antonio

April 2019

The Sacrament

Poem, Poetry for the People exhibit.

Felize Zine

November 2018

Untitled

Poem

St. Lucia Zine

October 2015

La Unica

Poem, Issue 3: La Dama

Selected Readings | Honors | Interviews

- LA Times (De Los) November 2023
Recorded Audio/Video Performance
Reading, accompanied by visual art
- Purple Couch Therapy October 2022
BIPOC Therapy Center Guest Poet
Reading, Purple Couch Therapy
- City of San Antonio | GetCreativeSA May & September 2022
Status of Women in San Antonio Poetry Night
Reading, Culture Commons Gallery
- Brooklyn Poets March 2022
Reading, Staff Pick
- Voyage San Antonio December 2021
Interview, Daily Inspiration: Meet Sabrina San Miguel
- Frontier Poetry March 2021
Honor, Contest Finalist
- Latinx Writing & Rhetoric Studies Vol.1., No. 1 June 2020
Honor, Peer Reviewed
- Texas A&M University-San Antonio April 2019
Reading, Poetry for the People opening reception.