About Me

Highly motivated Director of Events, podcast producer, and live event host looking to expand her expertise in the areas of ideation and quality programming.

Experience

Texas Public Radio, Jan 2022 - Present

Director of Events

Overseeing all event aspects, from ideation to rentals while collaborating across departments to plan initiatives aligned with collective strategies and values. Closely working with TPR leadership and external partners to ideate, develop, and review events, identifying suitable programs and fostering partnerships for potential revenue generation. Under Comprehensive Event Leadership, I establish event space policies, actively promote spaces, manage production, oversee budgets, conduct site inspections, and serve as a community ambassador, providing crucial support for promotional and fundraising activities.

Blind Tiger Comedy Club, June 2018 - September 2022

Director

Show production, booking of touring national acts, as well as original concepts. Promotions including social media campaigns, ticketing, and graphics design on signature "Secret Show." Copyediting and copywriting of graphics and all print materials. Writer's room & Performer.

Adecco May 2019 - July 2020

Copy Editor

Copyediting, proofreading, fact-checking, graphic design AP and company style guides.

North East School of the Arts, July 2016 -December 2018

Creative Writing Director

Recruit, interview, and retain Creative Writing students for a vigorous study including Literary Genres, Practical Writing, Creative Writing I/II Research and Technical Writing, Humanities, Imaginative Writing, Writing for Stage and Screen. Manage accounts, oversee fundraising, and write curriculum for each class taught under the Creative Writing discipline. Storyteller, Event Planner, and Performer
