

Tre' Rochelle

International Recording Artist

AGE 46. Based in San Antonio, Texas.
Weaving love, pain, and discovery through rhythmic storytelling.

Tre' Rochelle is a passionate neo-soul artist with a modern jazz twist. Her music is a captivating journey of self-discovery and expression, weaving personal experiences into soulful rhythms and introspective lyrics. Her powerful voice, electric vibe, and commanding stage presence have captured audiences worldwide. Raised in the cultural melting pots of New Orleans, Memphis, and Houston, she's anchored in her passion for music and the flavors of diverse influences.

Notably, Tre' has shared stages with industry giants such as Frank McComb, Anthony Hamilton and Spyro Gyra, showcasing her artistry in remarkable fashion. Her singles, including "The Rhythm," "Newness," and the emotionally vulnerable "The Reason (Gina)," paint a vivid narrative that resonates deeply. With her debut EP, "Violet: Slow Motion," she's carved her unique sound into the soulful landscape, gaining recognition and appreciation.

Furthermore, Tre's presence on platforms like iTunes (internationally ranked #3 & #4 on the R&B/Soul chart), Nayo's Burning Up Playlist ("Forever And A Day" featured) and her official music videos on YouTube VEVO (500K+ views) attest to her growing influence and connection with her audience.
