BACKGROUND

Birthdate: 11/11/1997
Birthplace: Bismarck, ND
Current residency: San Antonio, TX
Born in 1997 in Bismarck, North Dakota, and raised across the Midwest, I found my way to San Antonio in 2019 after studying psychology. This shift marked a pivotal moment as I transitioned to pursuing my passion for art and design with an emphasis in sustainability utilizing my background in psychology. Inspired by the diverse landscapes and cultures I've encountered, my work aims to evoke emotion and provoke thought, reflecting the essence of the human experience.

PROFESSIONAL EXPERIENCE

Taylor Kelsch Art
Founder & Fine Artist

January 2024 - Present

As the founder and fine artist of my own art business, I oversee all aspects of the business. I create emotional and stunning pieces of art with oil paint, trendy and flattering clothing with crochet, and my own marketing with social media. I strive to bring my creations to a wider audience while building a sustainable and impactful presence in the art world.

Ashton Woods
Sales and Marketing Coordinator

April 2024 - Present

I played a pivotal role in supporting our sales team through various marketing initiatives, administrative tasks, and creative problem-solving endeavors. From crafting compelling campaigns to streamlining administrative processes, I contribute to the overall success of the company by ensuring seamless coordination between sales and marketing efforts while implementing innovative solutions to drive growth and engagement.
