

Kataleena L. Garrett

Born in Milwaukee, Wisconsin, US
Lives in San Antonio, Texas, US

Kataleena Garrett (b. 2002) is a contemporary artist living and working in San Antonio, Texas. Through painting and drawing mediums, her work is reflective of mindful practices and her multicultural heritage. She is currently interning with Olivia and Cruz Ortiz at Casa Pink as a Studio Assistant. Additionally, she is an active member of the San Antonio Ethnic Art Society (SAEAS).

Kataleena's work has been exhibited in many local San Antonio galleries, by her dedication to taking part in the creative community. Her work has been featured Flight Gallery, UT San Antonio group shows, the Beacon at Midtown, Slab Cinema Arthouse, within 1906 galleries, and the San Antonio Art League by nomination.

In Fall 2025, she earned her BA in Fine Arts degree with a minor in Business Administration. By graduation, she received two exhibition awards for meritorious work amongst undergraduate students. The artist's work is represented in the private collections of Jesse Amado and Diana Rocha.
